Apathy Falls with the Leaves

The best homecoming in years, great attendance at football games, a very successful sock-hop, and school-wide interest in Roaring 20's Week, all added up to an increase in STUDENT PARTICIPATION in school activities.

For many students FALL meant remeeting friends and new experiences, while for others, it just meant returning to school a year older.

The reason was unknown, but whatever it may have been, kids began having FUN for fun's sake again.

Fresh Start

School opened once again with FRESHMEN ORIENTATION where incoming freshmen found themselves among countless new faces.

"GET INVOLVED" was the sound advice that Student Council president, Mike Eddy, presented to the class of '77.

The crowds, books, waiting, and confusion of the BOOK SALE was enough to frustrate and excite any summer-sedated student.

Amazement Weekend

Senior girls kicked off Warrior Weekend with a 13-7 victory over the junior girls in the first POWDER PUFF flag football game.

Much enthusiasm was shown at the PEP RALLY as exciting announcements were read.

During the PARADE, villagers could see the hours of preparation that went into the floats and decorated cars.

Students, parents, and alumni were bursting with SPIRIT as DHS trampled Maine West 8-0 in the sophomore game and 32-19 in the varsity game.

"How the West was Won" seemed to be the perfect theme for this year's homecoming and the traditional DANCE seemed to be the perfect, but exhausted, ending for the truly Amazing Weekend.

Nostalgia Spirit

Guys and chicks came to school dressed in BOBBY SOCKS and SADDLE SHOES, greaser jackets, and vitalis-ed hair to celebrate 50's Day.

Between classes, students BOPPED down the halls to the tunes of Chubby Checker, Bill Haley and the Comets, and Elvis, played over the speaker system.

DANCE LESSONS — 50's style — were given during several gym classes. Over 500 kids squished into the cafeteria for the SOCK-HOP to jitterbug, twist, and bop to every 50's song imaginable.

Flap Happy

DHS became a TIME MACHINE as faculty and students took a journey back into the 1920's.

Fringed flappers and well-armed pin-striped GANGSTERS marched through the halls.

SILENT FLICKS with all the greats were featured throughout the week.

BOOTLEGGERS saw to it that the library and bookstore were held-up in the proper fashion of the '20's.

Machine guns and the tapping of the CHARLESTON echoed through the halls during 1920's week.

The Boyfriend

The Boyfriend was such a huge success, people were even returning from their graves to see the SPECTACULAR performance. It was a glamorous 20's extravaganza set in the south of France, complete with a HAPPY-EVER-AFTER ending in a fluffed-up flapper world. As was quoted throughout all the school, this was the exciting and unique start of "DHS' BEST THEATRICAL SEASON."

The Wizard of Oz

The Wizard of Oz brought new joy to youngsters and restored memories of CHILDHOOD to those of the older set. The cast chosen from drama classes; Dorothy, the Scarecrow, the Cowardly Lion and the Tinwoodsman strode down the yellow brick road to the ENCHANTED Emerald City. A scarecrow with a French accent and a female tinwoodsman all added to the production of this DELIGHTFUL show.

Semester Graduation

Somehow picking up 34½ credits earlier than their classmates, a small cluster of SENIORS graduated early. The MIDYEAR ceremony is somewhat less festive but to some, at least their schooling had ended. To others it was just a stepping stone to higher EDUCATION. But whatever its purpose, midyear GRADUATION brought to close many semesters of hard work.

Winter

The much-anticipated, eagerly-greeted first SNOW changed DHS into a beautiful fairyland. Caught up in the INFECTIOUS mood, students made snowmen, caught snowflakes on their tongues, and pushed a huge snowboulder into the school.

Pitch Day

Each department promotes their COURSES, and students must decide what subjects to take for the coming year.

Posters are read, displays examined, questions asked and answered, and the DECISION is made.

Ellery Virzi, Steve Scali, Terry Dunn, Mrs. Wright.

Stunts

GOOD guys and BAD guys was the theme, fun was the attitude, and fantastic was the show. The angel and devil argued all evening as to who reigned SUPREME. In the end, it was BOTH who shone with glory, along with cast and crew. A house for the cast party was nowhere to be found, and so Hackneys opened its doors to the exhausted and somewhat RELIEVED mob. Heads or Tails — either side of the coin was a WINNER in Stunts '74.

The Effect of Gamma Rays . . .

Gone for three years, the CONTEST PLAY came back to Deerfield in the form of "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds." With a cast of Darlin Kalmes, Teri Ray and Lorianne Stein, the play won first place in the District Meet and went on to Sectionals.

Guidance

THE SCHEDULE CHANGES this year totaled 3,200 making it the highest in DHS' history.

During all periods of the day, prospective college students could be found paging through the handbooks in the COLLEGE RESOURCE CENTER.

Always available with helpful intentions in mind, COUNSELORS guided students through all the hassles of the year.

Special Education

Help for students who had difficulty in regular classes could be found in the two LEARNING CENTERS.

Several underclassmen participated in the READING ROOM program designed to aid students in vocabulary skills, reading skills, and in preparing for college entrance exams.

The DHS NURSES saw every ailment imaginable from cuts, broken bones, and the flu to a serious case of overdue homework.

Teachers sitting in the halls aren't always there just to keep students out of them, but sometimes to answer some out-of-classroom questions.

IMC

Within the walls of the library sat students who used their free time to STUDY.

Throughout the year, students found the library a perfect place to SOCIALIZE and were promptly told to "be quiet or move."

There were those who actually used the IMC for RESEARCH.

And then there were the BOOKLADEN students who walked through the library hearing comments such as "Boy, do you look educated!"

English

MYTHOLOGY was required, but all those stories about gods and people turning into animals were too crazy to believe.

Stage fright seemed to be inevitable as students entered the limelight of their SPEECH class.

It was surprising that the police weren't called in, what with so much CRIME AND PUNISHMENT in the halls.

NOVELS and SHORT STORIES were never forgotten by freshman and junior English students.

Mathematics

Computer courses and a new computer were added to the curriculum this year just to make CONFUSION LANE two miles longer.

With the help of COMPUTERS, students were able to add $2 + 2$ in only 34 steps.

Those who really understood Pythagorus, Euclid, and why X plus Y equals the square root of π , could be found in any one of the ALGEBRA through CALCULUS classes.

But then, there were always those who felt that GEOMETRY was but a point on the line of life.

Science and Health

The science department started the year off with the BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT of 22 snapping turtles.

Days were worth waiting for once students could joyfully announce that they had just seen "a good one that even had a NUCLEUS."

Even the thought of DISSECTING a cat wasn't so bad. (Once you realized that you could get your partner to do the cutting.)

"G", "I", and "J" halls were the center of something new, something a little repulsive, something amazing, but always something SCIENTIFIC.

Fine Arts

PIZZAZ was what the Fine Arts department was all about, when the art classes out-did themselves with their "yarn pasted on cardboard" creations.

Freshman CHORUS always sounded like . . . Freshman Chorus.

The BAND was always spirited, a bit crazy, but DHS' musical pride and joy.

Physical Education

Students found P.E. the perfect time to LET OUT all their frustrations. Some managed to get up at 6:30 in the morning to be on time for EARLY BIRD gym while others exercised in 20° weather. All types of INTRAMURALS were held for those who wanted to have a good time after school. Many gym classes were assisted by athletic and often entertaining LEADERS.

Social Studies

Political Science, Economics, and Philosophy were the SOCIAL SCIENCE courses offered to help students break away from the humdrum of straight history classes.

In the Social Studies department, teachers were frequently found fumbling with the awkward, but useful, films, maps, records, and other AUDIO-VISUAL AIDES.

LIBERALISM struck the U.S. History classes this year when they went to see the play "Grease."

A staged killing of Louis XIV took place during a simulation of the French Revolution in the A.P. MODERN EUROPEAN HISTORY class.

Organizations

Orchestra

Five times each week, the Orchestra assembled with the goal of making MUSIC.

More often than not, they succeeded, and when a smile came across Mr. Spriester's face, they knew they had put it ALL TOGETHER.

Lauren Handberg

GIMA

The Girls' Intramural Association sponsors Turnabout and the concession stand at football games to raise money for the GIRLS' P.E. department.

This year, GIMA sponsored a $2000 scholarship, bought leotards for Swim Club and a bar for the dance studio.

Band

No matter what the weather was, spectators could always see the band MARCHING during halftime at football games.

In the hope of buying new uniforms, BAND members sold candy and raised $1500 to put in their fund.

Before school practices, long REHEARSALS, lots of fun, occasionally a few raised voices, but it was all a part of them.

Ambassadors sounded professional and took their music on a never ending MERRY-GO-ROUND of performances.

An all NEW group, Ambassadors achieved their success totally on their own, with a little help from a friend.

Lots of time and lots of EFFORT — well worth it to those participating and those listening

A Cappella

A Cappella was a lot of work even after passing the 45 MINUTE EXAM.

The busses loaded at six in the morning for some of the SINGING engagements.

The most important thing was that they enjoyed every minute of all the hardships, and the FUN never ceased.

Well, maybe once-in-a-while the clowning stopped — especially when someone missed the DOWNBEAT.

Twirlers

The band plays and the TWIRLERS entertain the half-time crowds with their long-practiced routines. An occasional dropped baton makes no difference, as three girls GRACEFULLY execute their maneuvers.

Pep Band

Made up of music-loving volunteers, the PEP BAND played at home basketball games and at sports award nights.

Wearing crazy hats and having fun, they helped the crowd lead the Warriors on to VICTORY.

TWIRLERS — Sandy Spriester, Patti Gembra, Mary Linville.

The Voice

"The Student Voice" made its debut in January as an alternate NEWSPAPER. With Student Council backing and a Xerox machine borrowed from the school, the newspaper seems to have won many READERS' support.

Troubadour

Trying to get more students to submit their work this year, TROUBADOUR staged a fantastic publicity campaign. Working hard to make their magazine IMAGINATIVE and enjoyable, the staff chose creative writings and art work representative of the school.

Dance Club

Gracefully spinning, turning, and leaping to the music, Dance Club is in perpetual MOTION.

Ignoring stretched muscles and aching limbs, club members work hard to perfect their ART.

Dancing at the Humanities Lecture Demonstration, during Fine Arts Week and at the Dance Show, the club shares its joy of DANCING with others.

SENIOR CLUB — Megan Morrison, Linda Rozak, Jane Peterson, Sandy Meagher, Jane Maloney (president), Patti Caldwell, Cindy Hurt (secretary), Laura Picchietti, and Peggy Walz (vice-president).

Gymnastics Club

Burlap bags were sold to raise money for a TUMBLING mat.

Club members spent long hours creating, teaching, and practicing new ROUTINES.

Vaulting, unevens, balance beam, flip-flops, and a few falls were all simple, common-place SKILLS for the girls in Gymnastics Club.

GYMNASTICS CLUB — Front Row: Cathy Burke, Janet Chisolm, Marla Simon, Jennifer Castle, Debbie Lundquist, Tammy Bedrosian, Barb Hovde, Patti Turner, Susie Long. Second Row: Michelle DeGrange, Becky Nassimbene, Cory Kneuer, Lynn Caldwell, Sue Davis, Toni Klein, Julie Weidler, Cherie Peterson. Swim Club

Ballet legs, back DOLPHINS, and barracudas are just a few of the strange-sounding stunts that Swim Club has fun doing while they're in the water.

Combining grace, skill, strength, and stamina, Swim Club manages to make WATER BALLET look easy.

Mat Mates

Mat Mates are the cheerleaders just for WRESTLING.

Cheering, timing, and keeping score keep the sixteen girls busy at all home and away meets.

Pom Pon

Whenever there was MUSIC, these spirited beauties could be found kicking high.

Their spirit and happiness never died, even during those cold FOOTBALL GAMES.

But once inside at the BASKETBALL GAMES, their warmth spread throughout the stands.

There were always times of trouble and the problems of remembering whether you were doing a KNEE-KICK or a KICK-KNEE, but those were the kinds of problems in the pom pon girls always want to remember.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders led our football team to VICTORY again and again this year and also cheered the basketball team. Sometimes the crowd led them, but usually the cheerleaders were SMILING and clapping by themselves. Long summer PRACTICES and Thursday-morning WORKOUTS kept them in shape so that on Saturday afternoons they did their best.

RIGHT: Laurie Picchietti and Megan Morrison. BELOW: Sue Davis, Janet Chisholm, Lisa Zschunke, and Cory Kneuer.

Forensics

Enthusiastic members know that Forensics means working hard, learning a lot, and waking up before dawn on SATURDAYS to compete in tournaments.

Getting bigger and better as the year progressed, the team won the District meet.

Drama

Drama is more than acting — it's building sets, directing and REACTING to others.

Becoming more active than ever before, Drama Club always seemed to have a cutting or a play in production, another in REHEARSAL, and a third being planned.

Guard

On Saturday mornings, Guard members were to be in the pool teaching PEE-WEES and WEE-WOZZLES how to swim.

At all the HOME SWIM MEETS, Guard was responsible for timing and cheering for the swimmers.

Guard members will never forget their traditional CANDYCANESALE or their parties that kept them busy, but at the same time will never remember what they were for.

Girls' Club

Girls' Club may have been EXCLUSIVELY FOR GIRLS, but they reached for the sky as for what they could do.

They began by selling all school CALENDARS and went all the way to the top with their bopping 50's sock-hop.

But no matter what, these girls always had a SMILE waiting for everyone they met.

French Club

Sponsoring French dinners, French films and field trips, the FRENCH CLUB makes learning French culture fun.

With numerous activities and a trip to Quebec, the French Club does lots more than simply speak the LANGUAGE.

Hebrew Club

Establishing themselves in the first year of HEBREW CLUB, a handful of kids got together to speak a language and study the culture of the countries where it is spoken.

FRENCH CLUB — Bottom Row: Mark Silberman, Leslie Wood. Standing: Patti Caldwell.

Debate

The Debaters sure did TALK a lot. They preferred to think of it as PERSUASIVE DISCUSSION. Affirmative, negative, cross examination — to the outsider it sounded more like GIBBERISH. But the Debaters knew what they were talking about, that's really all that mattered. (And of course, it helped if the JUDGE knew, too.)

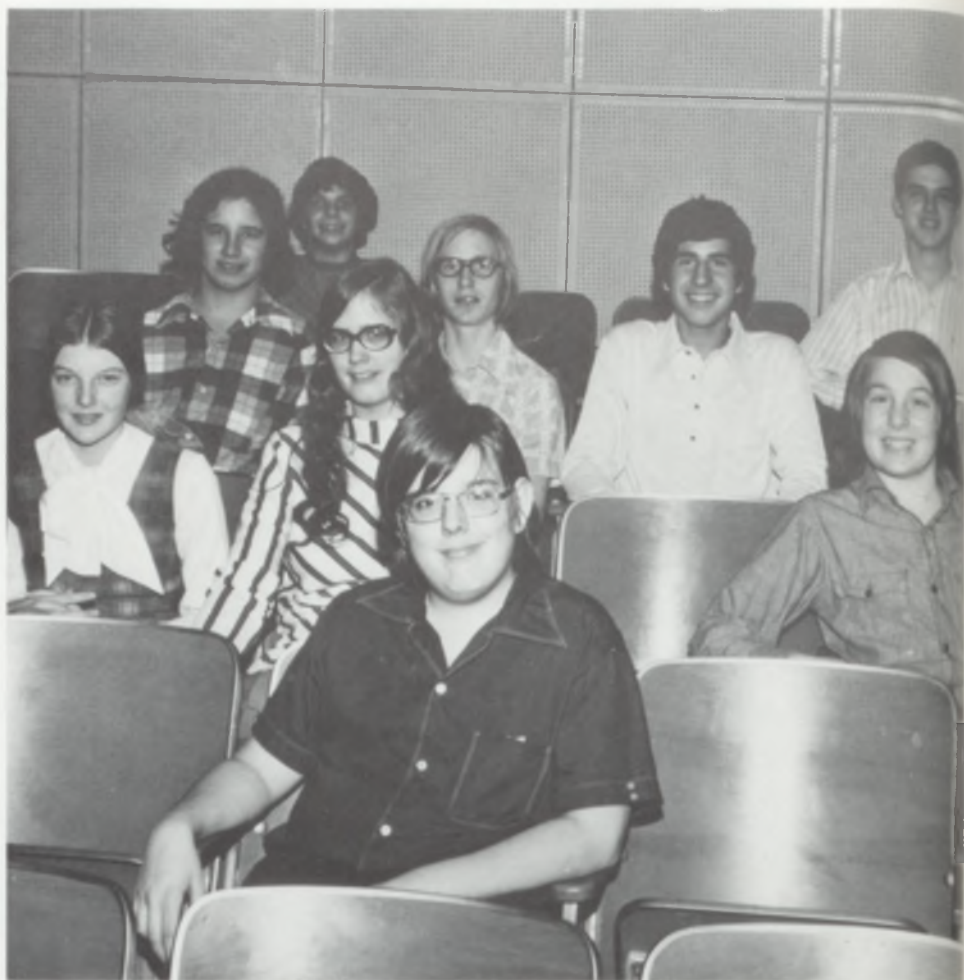

German Club

Under a new advisor, German Club had more ACTIVITIES this year than any other.

Really getting involved, they had a cozy MARSHMALLOW TOAST with the French Club.

A little INTERMINGLING and the German people were off to a good start.

Deerprints

Coming out twice a month, DEERPRINTS supplies students with news, features, sports results and editorials.

Informing students on upcoming events and reporting on those that have passed, the school NEWSPAPER summarizes student life.

O*YAD

Putting together a YEARBOOK means finding lost pictures, identifying unknown faces, and scrambling to meet deadlines that were thought to be weeks away.

Attempting to compromise on different ideas, the staff works as a TEAM to complete each page, one by one, until the book is finally finished.

O*YAD STAFF — Diana Berman, Stephanie Banta, Judy Cohen, Mallory Otten (underclassmen), Susan Thorsten (organizations), Geoff Baer, Laura Green, Jan Stark, Pam Ransom (sports), Kathe Crowley (photography), Nancy Bruemmer (index), Beryl Kaplan (seniors), Carolyn Sanders (activities), Carol Smetak (academics), Loryn Bard (business). AFS

American Field Service was typified this year by lots of bake sales and fun PARTIES, where the French exchange student showed everyone how to do the jitterbug.

With thirty foreign students coming to DHS for AFS Day, the AFS did a good job of publicizing their organization and creating interest in the club.

AFS — Front Row: Norbert Chassagnac, Kathy Dunn (president), Kathy Sullivan (vice-president), Bob Sibincic, Paul Hampton, Stephanie Banta. Students involved in the Cooperative Work Training Program work in various JOBS that require a minimal amount of skill and technical knowledge.

Like other co-op work programs, CWT gives STUDENTS a chance to make money and earn credit towards school.

Student Council

This year, Executive Board was the center of RELEVANCY.

Even though a membership drive was needed at first, WEDNESDAY MORNINGS always brought more ideas from the students on General Assembly.

General Assembly wasn't the only one more involved in the student government role; frequent visits from the ADMINISTRATION showed they cared, too.

All this added to student enthusiasm, let Student Council really do their thing and make lot of little red checks on their "STUDENT GOALS" chart.

YES

Because of this organization, Deerfield has been made more aware of the problems of POLLUTION and the many ways of solving those problems.

Several of these environmentalists spoke to students at the Junior High Schools and demonstrated how to make their community more "LIVABLE".

STUDENT COUNCIL — Front Row: Carey Caldwell, Nancy Jaycox (vice-president), Beth Delarm, Dick Coen, Margie Dan (secretary). Second Row: Paul Jones, Mike Eddy (president), Ginny Curtin, Tara Carolan. As both names might imply, it is a club for students interested in TEACHING. Practicing teaching, observing classes and talking to TEACHERS, it is a valuable experience for those interested in education.

Camera Club

Camera Club caught all kinds of IMAGES with their cameras this year. Members learned more about their craft as they developed, printed, and made their own composite pictures.

Usherettes

Greeting audiences and handing out programs, Usherettes got DHS performances off to a good start. Working diligently in red blazers and white skirts, the members with their friendly SMILES made any event a pleasurable one.

CAMERA CLUB — Mr. Bell, Chris Freihaut, Brad Colomus.

Pythagoras

Pythagoras does just what the man it's named after did: fool around with NUMBERS.

Pythagoras proves that outside of the classroom, math can actually be INTERESTING and fun.

Science Club

Each year, Science Club chooses one aspect of science and then discusses the topic and thinks of related PROJECTS to do.

This year, the members experimented with growing plants HYDROPONICALLY (without soil).

Astronomy

Comets, shooting stars and SUPER-NOVAS are all common words to the members of Astronomy Club. At meetings, they discussed and looked at slides they had taken with TELESCOPIC cameras. On a field trip, they saw the Northwestern OBSERVATORY.

ASTRONOMY CLUB — Front Row: Karen Dean, Karen Peterson. Back Row: Dick Olney, Constantine Deliyannis.

Sports

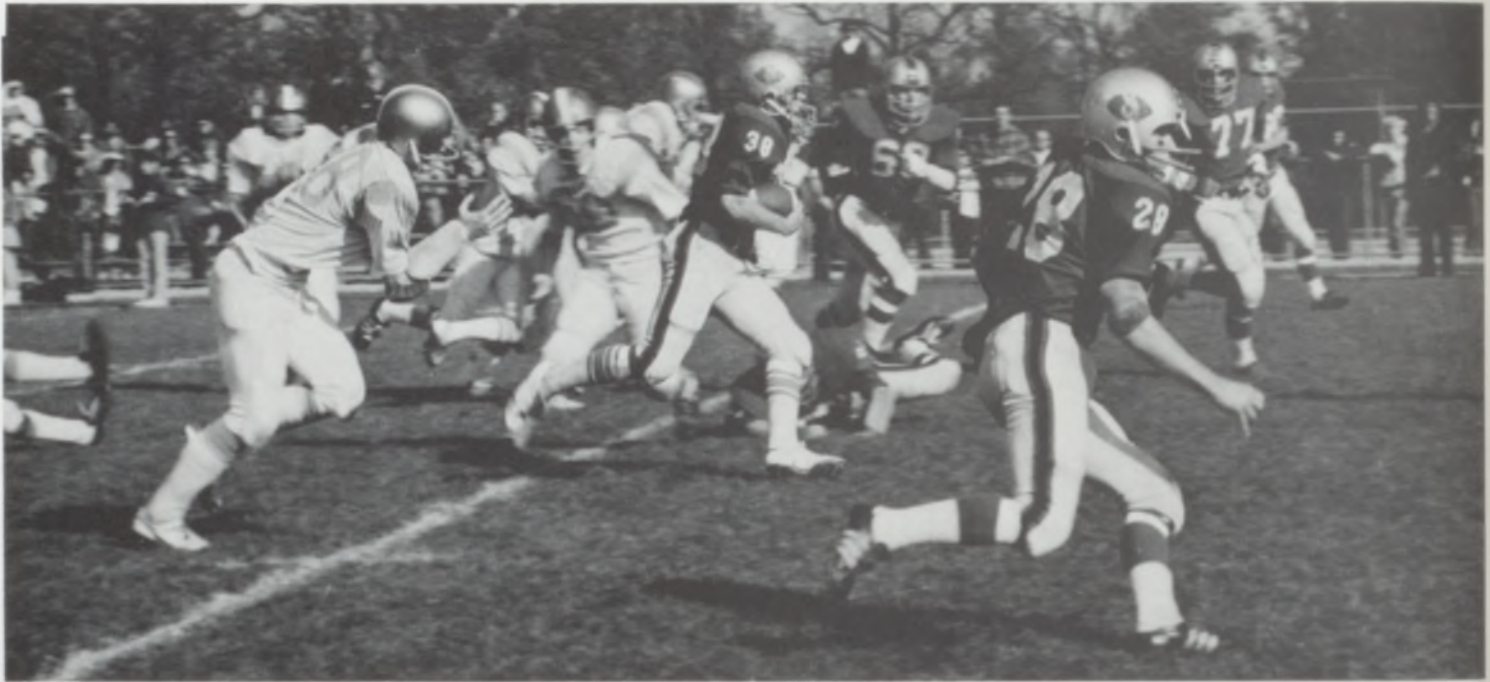

Football

School spirit really picked up as Deerfield's varsity FOOTBALL team captured the Central Suburban League title.

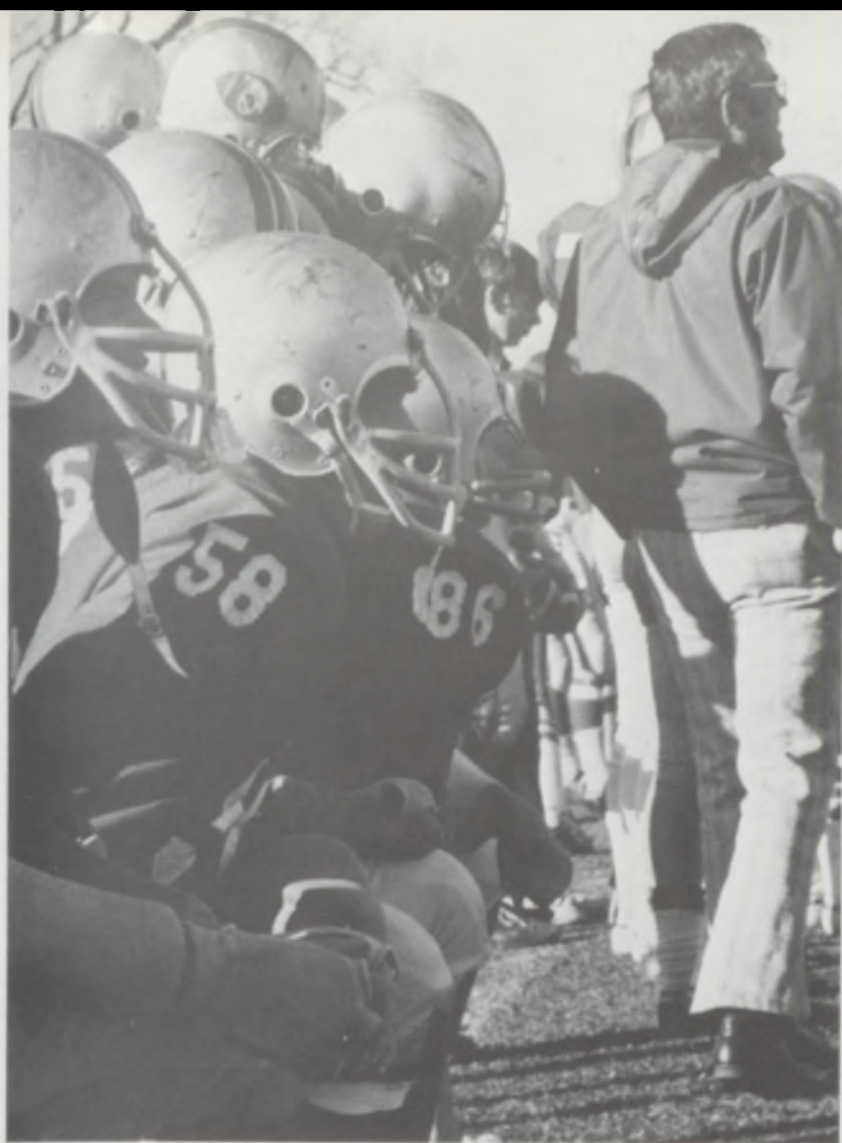

The team finished with an undefeated 9-0 SEASON, the best in the history of DHS.

With the entire team fulfilling the role of most valuable player, Tom Roberts an all-state end, eight all-conference players plus total TEAM EFFORT brought forth the most exciting football season DHS has ever witnessed.

Cross Country

This year was one of those rebuilding years for the CROSS-COUNTRY team as the varsity never got very far very fast.

RESPECT wasn't lost entirely, as the team managed to beat one of DHS's biggest rivals, Highland Park. For the first time ever, the cheerleaders came to cheer the HARRIERS in victory and defeat.

Soccer

The SOCCER team concluded its second year of interscholastic competition with a 4-7-1 record. A young TEAM in terms of experience combined with a new coach still gave top teams in the state a tough match. Despite losing quite a few seniors, with upcoming underclassmen and rising popularity in the SPORT, next year's team should be even better.

Hockey

The 1974 ice hockey Warriors were the hottest thing around this winter, skating, shooting, and scoring their way to first place in the North A division of the Chicago Metropolitan High School Hockey League. Despite being a club team in its first year of existence, the icemen quickly became one of the leading teams in Illinois high school hockey. Leading the team were junior captain Matt Dietz and senior goalies Tim Lyon and Rick Nielsen.

Field Hockey

This year's Girls' Field Hockey team wasn't too successful, but the good time everyone had made all the EFFORT worthwhile. Flying sticks, bruised bones, and cracked hockey balls were all a part of these BREATHLESS athletes fun. At the POST-SEASON PARTY, the team huddled into the coach's taosty-warm porch for hot dogs, real dogs, laughing, talking and snowball fights.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' TENNIS team placed well in both Central Suburban League competition and the League Championship.

For the first time in DHS's history, six members of the team participated in state competition following their clean-sweep performance in DISTRICTS. With returning underclassmen and growing INTEREST in girls' sports, the outlook for next year's team is very bright.

GYMNASTICS means making almost impossible stunts look as easy as turning around.

Inexperienced but enthusiastic, the Girls' VOLLEYBALL Team didn't have much to show with its record, but did however show great improvement by the end of the season.

Consisting of about $\frac{3}{4}$ freshmen, the team suffered losses but gained experience and had a taste of good competition.

We of O*YAD would like to express our appreciation to all the people who contributed more than their share and were always around when you needed them. And also, to Mr. Knudson, The Wizard of O*YAD, Mom, apple pie and the girl next door.

"As time goes by,
many things can fade
and lose their luster.
But never friendship." —

Dean Walley

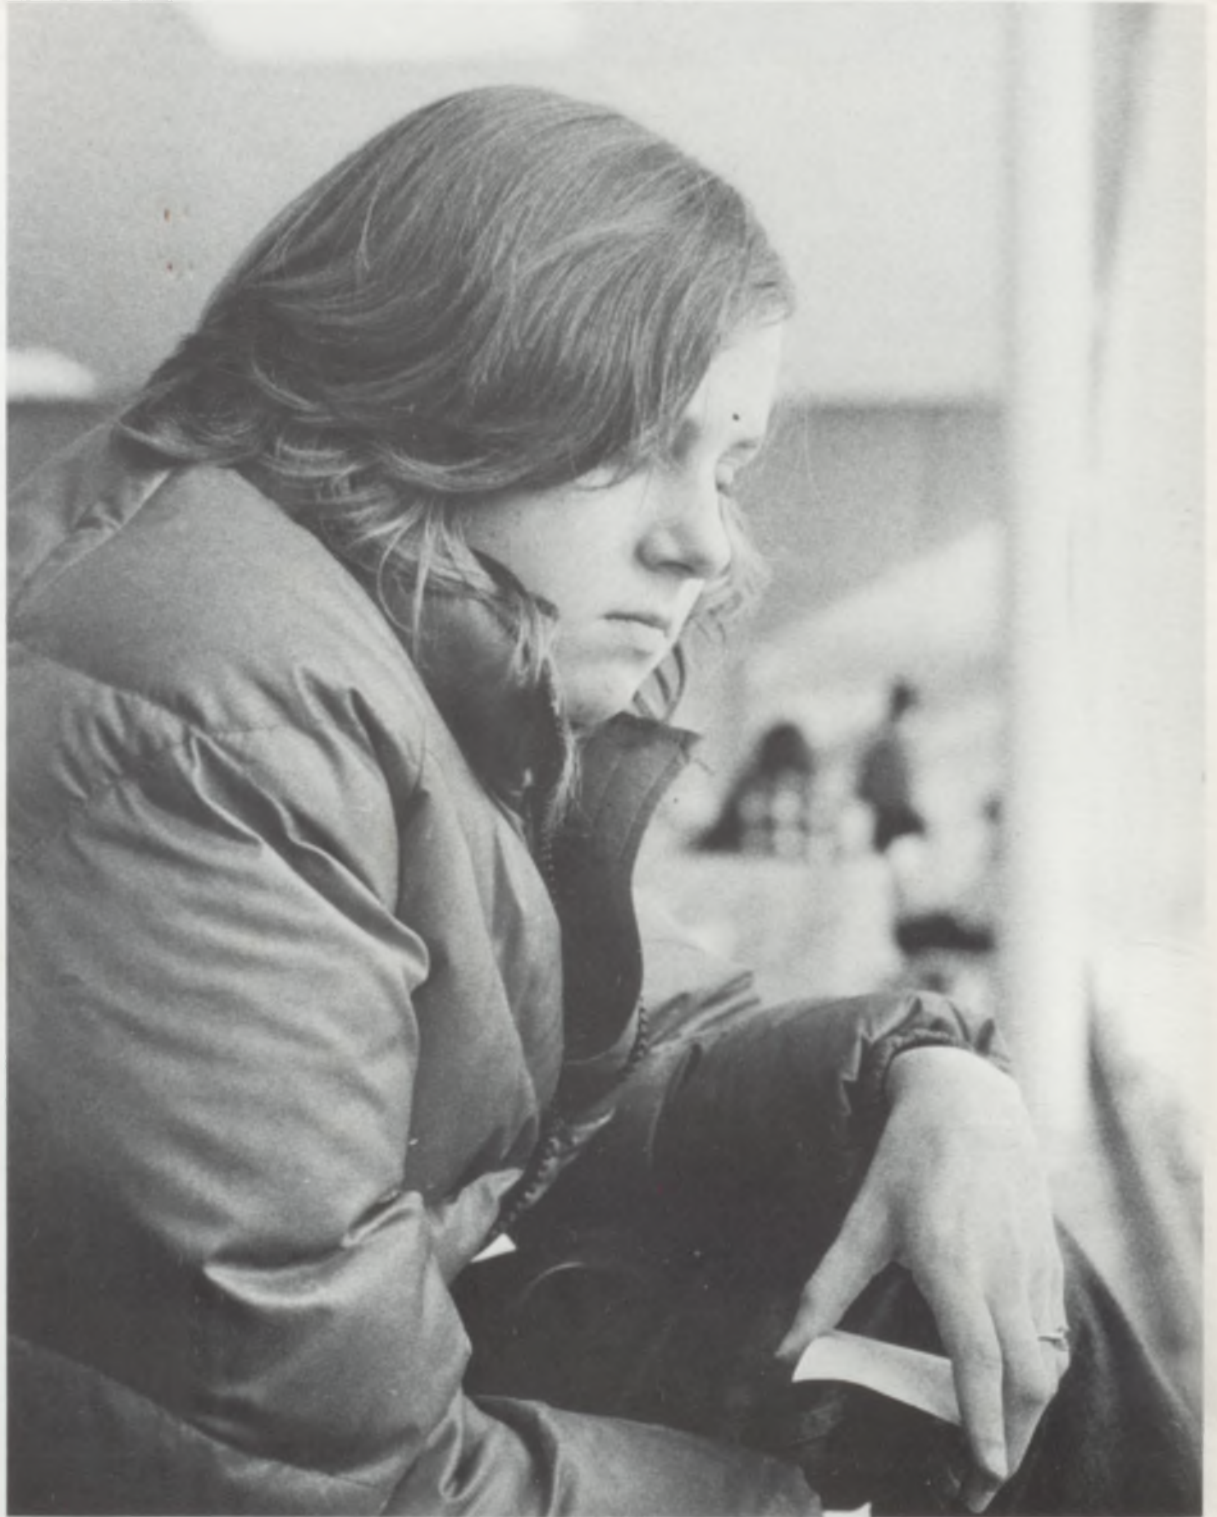

"For yesterday is already a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope." —

Based on the Sanscrit

"Our youth we can have but today, we may always find time to grow old."

Bishop Berkeley

"A time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . . A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left to you."
